STAFF REPORTS

Area Manager Berenice Garcia reported the following:

1. Berenice reintroduced the area’s new District Manager, Salome Martinez. We are very excited to see what changes Salomé will bring to the district.

2. The application process for part time and full-time positions with the Park and Recreation Department are open now! We are looking for those with a heart of service to fill positions all over the city.
3. The governor has announced the reopening of California on June 15th, 2021. However, the City of San Diego has not decided on a date to fully reopen and we will continue with the policies in place until we have received that direction.
4. In response to a question from E. Fattahipour regarding the irrigation of a hillside between the Doyle Park and Playmor properties, Berenice informed the CRG that there is a Grounds Maintenance Worker focused on fixing broken sprinkler heads in the area.

OCA Center Director Yvette Nourie-Burns reported the following:

1. Doyle is in the Phase I Reopening grouping set to reopen to the public on June 1st, 2021 for contractual and staff run programming. We hope to offer reservation times for badminton and, once we are in yellow tier, basketball and volleyball.
2. Returning programming will include Doyle Kidz Kamp, Doyle Tiny Tots, and USA Kyokushin Karate. In the Fall, Dance to Evolve will return. Kidz Love Soccer would like to return but are currently looking for a new instructor for the area.
3. Doyle Park is showing Cars on July 23rd, 2021. The previously reported selection of Zootopia 2 was no longer available on booking day.

INFORMATION ITEMS: None.

ADOPTION ITEMS: None.

ACTION ITEMS:

1. Pop Up Tent – Lettering changed to black, with the exception of the green from the tree, and centered on one line. Request to cover the costs not covered by the initial grant ($1900), not to exceed $300. Approval of up to $300 to cover any additional costs not covered by the initial Pop Up Tent grant. It was Moved/ Seconded (D. Ratnikova/ E. Fattahipour). The motion passed with 3 ayes, 0 nays and 0 abstention.
